

AMIE CHANG

MANAGING DIRECTOR & HEAD OF THE LOS ANGELES OFFICE

Amie Chang is a Managing Director at Nardello & Co. and the Head of the firm's Los Angeles office, where she leads complex, multi-jurisdictional due diligence, strategic intelligence, fraud, asset tracing and litigation support investigations.

Prior to her return to the US, Amie lived and worked in Asia for over a decade in her capacity as a diplomat for the US Department of State and as a senior investigator with an international consulting firm.

Prior to joining the firm, Amie was a director at a global risk consulting firm, where she managed multiple engagements across the Asia-Pacific region. These included investigations into numerous Chinese companies in a wide range of industries ahead of their proposed listings on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange; a business intelligence investigation seeking to gain clarity into allegations made against a listed Chinese company by a short seller report; and a litigation support investigation into assets of the founders of a prominent food and beverage chain in Asia and North America.

Amie began her career as an intelligence analyst for the US Department of Defense, where she authored analytic papers on the leadership and foreign policy of East Asian countries. She was also a diplomat with the US Department of State, where she monitored political and security issues and served as a focal point for multidisciplinary teams by providing analytic support to policy, strategic, and tactical customers.
