

Susan Coppedge Joins Nardello & Co. as a Managing Director and Head of the Atlanta Office

NEW YORK – July 8, 2019 – Nardello & Co. LLC, a leading global investigations firm, today announced that Susan Coppedge has joined the firm as a Managing Director and Head of the firm’s Atlanta office. Ms. Coppedge will lead Nardello & Co.’s efforts to develop and serve clients in the southeast as well as nationally.

Previously, Ms. Coppedge was nominated by President Obama and confirmed by the US Senate as the Ambassador-at-Large for the Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons at the United States Department of State. During her tenure, Ms. Coppedge represented the United States government in international engagements to address human trafficking by meeting with high-ranking, foreign government officials, law enforcement, international organizations, and US diplomatic personnel. She joins Nardello & Co. from Kids in Need of Defense, where she served as the Interim Managing Attorney, coordinating with national law firms in Atlanta for pro bono representation. Ms. Coppedge also prosecuted over 150 criminal cases while she served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Northern District of Georgia.

“Susan’s legal acumen and prosecutorial experience, coupled with the international network she developed as a representative for the United States in the fight against human trafficking, make her a superb choice to head our Atlanta office,” said Dan Nardello, Founder & Chief Executive Officer of Nardello & Co. “Susan’s track record of managing complex fraud, corruption, identity theft, and intellectual property investigations will add tremendous value to our deep bench of investigative talent. I am delighted to welcome Susan to the Nardello & Co. team and look forward to her contributions as we continue to grow our practice in the southeast and beyond.”

“It is an honor to join this premier global investigations firm and the esteemed group of professionals in the Atlanta office,” said Ms. Coppedge. “I look forward to leveraging my legal and international experience to enhance the firm’s offerings in the southeast and support Nardello’s clients around the globe.”

Biography

Susan Coppedge

Prior to joining Nardello & Co., Ms. Coppedge served as the Interim Managing Attorney at Kids in Need of Defense, where she coordinated with national law firms in Atlanta for pro bono representation of unaccompanied migrant children. Previously, she was nominated by President Obama and confirmed by the US Senate as the Ambassador-at-Large for the Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons at the United States Department of State. During her tenure,

Ms. Coppedge represented the United States government in international engagements to address human trafficking by meeting with high-ranking, foreign government officials, law enforcement, international organizations, and US diplomatic personnel. She also managed foreign assistance programs providing over $18 million in 2016 to fund 41 grants focused on advancing the anti-trafficking movement globally. Notably, in 2017, she made the final grant-funding decision for the initial $25 million grant under the State Department’s inaugural Program to End Modern Slavery.

Ms. Coppedge previously served for 15 years as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Northern District of Georgia, where she prosecuted over 150 criminal cases including human trafficking, government fraud, public corruption, document fraud/identity theft, environmental crimes, intellectual property, tax, and violent crime cases. She also served as the office’s human trafficking coordinator, managing the human trafficking docket, conducting trainings for local, state, and federal law enforcement, and engaging in community outreach events.

Ms. Coppedge began her legal career clerking for then Chief Judge William C. O’Kelley in the Northern District of Georgia and, then, entered the Department of Justice Environment and Natural Resources Division through the Honors Program.

Ms. Coppedge holds a BA in public policy studies from Duke University and a JD from Stanford University.

About Nardello & Co.

Nardello & Co. is a global investigations firm with experienced professionals handling a broad range of issues including the FCPA/UK Bribery Act and other corruption-related investigations, civil and white collar criminal litigation and arbitration support, asset tracing, strategic intelligence and political risk assessment, computer forensics, and reputational due diligence. The firm’s clients include the world’s leading law firms and financial institutions, Fortune 500 and FTSE 100 companies, high-net-worth individuals and family offices, governments, NGOs, sports organizations and academic institutions. With offices in New York, London, Washington DC, Atlanta, Hong Kong, Tokyo, Milan and Dubai, Nardello & Co.’s professional staff includes former US federal prosecutors, former general counsels of multinational corporations, US and international lawyers, former law enforcement personnel and intelligence operatives, licensed investigators, research analysts, former journalists, financial crime specialists, forensic accountants and computer forensic experts.

Media Contacts:

Ellen Davis/Kelsey Markovich
Sard Verbinnen & Co.
212-687-8080
Nardello-SVC@sardverb.com